Thy Will Be Done

Have you ever heard someone say...

“Well, if it’s Gods will, it will happen.” ?

This sounds so good, But is it true?

What is God’s will? Consider ...

2 Peter 3:9

The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.

So if God is not WILLing that any should perish, does this mean that no one perishes?

Of course not. We know that many will perish and not enter into the Kingdom of God.

And so we learn that not everything is to be thrown into the hands ... of fate.

There is action and obedience that is often necessary on our part if we desire the Father to move on our behalf.

We have to make sure that we do all we are to do in every circumstance of our life and not leave everything up to chance.

Just as it is not God’s will for anyone to perish, there may be circumstances that the Father desires for our lives.

And yet, just as there is action required on those who are perishing for them not to perish, there may be action required on our part for that which the Father desires ...for us as well.

It could be obedience of that which requires adding something into our life. It could be obedience of that which requires eliminating something from our life. Including habits, thoughts, attitudes, you name it.

It is our prayer that as we all continue to grow in the Word of God that we are all attentive to the Fathers voice.

So that which the Father desires for all of us, individually and corporately as the Body, may truly come to pass.

Make it a point that you never let chance dictate where obedience could have decided.

We hope you have enjoyed this brief study. Remember, continue to test everything.

Shalom!
