Our GPS - Psalm 119:19

Welcome to Scriptures for Life with TorahFamily.org. Taking time to focus on the Father's way.

Ps. 119:19 I am a stranger on earth; do not hide your commands from me.

Have you ever been lost before? It's a scary feeling. It's one thing to be lost but it's an entirely different feel when your lost in a foreign place. You see, you can be lost with no one around. However, you can be lost with people all around you. But if those people don't speak the same language, then you're the foreigner.

Sometimes we forget that when walking through this life. This world, in it's current state, is not our home. We are longing for a kingdom the will be ruled with the ultimate righteous king. Ruling with the ultimate righteous laws. That being the case, until that day comes, we do all we can to pursue those laws to the best of our ability. They're our GPS to help guide us home.

His law is what will go forth from Jerusalem when Yeshua rules as king. If it's His kingdom you long to be in, then it's His laws you should long for today.

Let this be a focus in your time of meditation throughout the day. Until next time, shalom!
