Hope- Romans 15:4

Welcome to Scriptures for Life with TorahFamily.org. Taking time to focus on the Father's way.

Romans 15:4 For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

Hope. What a powerful word. Someone who has hope will never give up. Someone who has hope will keep doing what they are supposed to be doing, even if it seems it is for nothing at the moment. Hope gives us vision. Hope allows us to see what is not visible to the human eye. Hope creates a strength deep within our hearts that others will see lived out in the midst of turbulence.

Do you want that hope? Do you need that hope? Then get your nose buried in the scriptures. Get yourself into the lives found in real life examples where YHWH moved. Find out what they did right. Find out what they did wrong and avoid their mistakes. Learning and growing in Him is a process that we need to work on everyday of our lives.

Everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

Let this be a focus in your time of meditation throughout the day. Until next time, Shalom.
