No Problem - Isaiah 6:8

Welcome to Scriptures for Life with TorahFamily.org. Taking time to focus on the Father's way.

Isaiah 6:8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?” And I said, “Here am I. Send me!”

Isaiah is seeing an awesome vision thrusting him into what appears to him as the very throne room of Heaven. When he hears YHWH asking who He could send, Isaiah doesn't hesitate for one moment. He jumps at the opportunity to serve the most High. He didn't even ask what was needed to be done. He simply gives himself with NO reservation.

How could one blindly volunteer before even knowing what the request was? Bottom line, he saw the majesty of YHWH. He heard the angels saying “Holy, Holy, Holy.” He knew whatever the task was, it was an honor to serve the most High, regardless of what the task was to be.

And now we see the importance of keeping our eyes on Him. Keeping our focus on the author and perfecter of our faith at all times. When we keep Him first and foremost in our life, not allowing anything to hinder our vision of Him, we will have no problem doing what He requests.

Let this be a focus in your time of meditation throughout the day. Until next time, Shalom.
