Every Day - Galatians 5:25

Welcome to Scriptures for Life with TorahFamily.org. Taking time to focus on the Father's way.

Galatians 5:25 Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit.

Walking in the Spirit is not something we should just casually do when it's convenient. It shouldn't be an event we plan out on our calendar. It's a lifestyle. It's choosing to have ourselves always listening to what He says to our hearts. Yet, not just listening, but doing as well.

This is truly important. Yeshua Himself said to all seven churches in Revelation "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches." He didn't say, "He who has a Torah scroll, start reading." He didn't say "He who has the prophets, find out what's coming next." No. He said "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

The Spirit makes everything personal for us. He speaks to our hearts. Everything He says to us will line up with the Torah and the Prophets. How much quiet time do you give yourself to listen to the Spirit? Odds are, the Spirit is not going to yell at us to get our attention. We have to make that time. Every day.

Let this be a focus in your time of meditation throughout the day. Until next time, Shalom.
